FROM THE DESK OF FATHER JEFF:

Next week we will have the Campaign for Human Development Collection.

Today's second collection is for the repaving of the walk in front of the Church. Thank you for your generosity.

At the end of the month, we will beginning a new church year. What better way to start the Advent Season than to attend Lessons & Carols on November 29th. This Annual Celebration brings together some of the talented people of our Parish and gives them the opportunity to share their gifts.

Book of Remembrance:

The Book of Remembrance will be in front of the Blessed Mother's Altar for the month of November. Please feel free to write the names of your deceased loved ones.

A Mass of Remembrance will be celebrated on Saturday Nov. 21st at 11 am.

All families who have lost a loved one, from SHJM Parish, this past year are invited to attend. These deceased will be remembered in a special way during this liturgy.

All parishioners are encouraged and invited to attend this Mass. It is a holy and wholesome act to pray to and for our dead. If you have lost someone and wish to have them included...call Suzanne (283-0097) at the parish office to have their name added to our list.

Coffee and light refreshments will be served following the Mass.

(the newly recreated) Bereavement Group

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

There will be an Anointing of the Sick on November 16th at the 12 Noon Mass. All those wishing a blessing please attend.

LECTORS please pick up your new workbooks in the Sacristy as soon as possible.

33rd Sunday of Ordinary TimeNov. 15, 2009

Dn 12:1-3; Ps 16:5, 8,9-10, 11; Heb 10:11-14, 18; Mk 13:24-32

In a time of persecution, Daniel gave hope to a troubled community, reassuring them that God would vindicate and deliver them. "Keep me safe, O God," the psalmist prayed. God's servants would escape their tormentors and arise to "shine brightly" like the stars of the firmament. They would be shown the path to a joy-filled life in God's presence.

In the reign of God, Jesus Christ rules triumphantly, continuing his high priestly work of interceding for a suffering humanity. Through his Passion, death, and resurrection, Christ's work has been completed, yet we await its fulfillment. When will this happen? What will be the sign that everything will be accomplished? We need not engage in futile speculation but instead continue working for the coming of God's reign. Like the faithful servants in Daniel, the Son of Man will come with great power and glory at the appointed time. The exact day or hour is not part of divine revelation. We rely on Jesus' assurance that though the heavens and earth will pass away, his word will stand firm forever.

For reflection: How does my service advance the coming of God's reign? What frustrates this goal?

HUMAN RESOURCES OF THE HAMPTONSDUE TO MASSIVE DUMPING OF GARBAGE AT THE CLOTHING BINS, THE BINS HAVE BEEN REMOVED.

Donations of clothing will be accepted Monday, Wednesday & Friday from 10 AM – 12 Noon at the food pantry or Parish Center. To receive clothing please call 283-6415 for an appointment.

Bulletin Reflection:

The readings today speak of the end of the world and the coming of the Kingdom. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship says clearly "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now." May our good stewardship cause us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day!

SHJM YOUTH UPDATE:

*The Lord keeps faith forever,
secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.
The Lord sets captives free. Ps 146*

The theme of our last meeting reflected this Sunday's reading. The teens were interested in working for social justice and becoming free to express their Catholic faith.

We will be holding a Celebrate Youth Thanksgiving Party for 7th & 8th graders Friday evening November 20th from 7:30 – 9:30 PM in the Parish Hall. There will be the opportunity for teens to make a hearty salad for those in need that evening followed by music, fun and games with a Thanksgiving theme. High School teens will do most of the running of the event with parents/adult helpers. Chaperones/teen helpers needed! Please contact Sr. Assunta 631-283-0508 to volunteer or email her at assuntarsm@gmail.com. (Please note that Sister's phone does not take messages.)

A Celebrate Youth Advent Party will follow in December.

The next soup kitchen is planned for Saturday, December 19th.

"COPING THROUGH THE HOLIDAYS"

The East End Hospice Bereavement Care Team is pleased to offer "Coping through the Holidays" on Thursday, Nov. 19 – 6:30 – 8 PM at the Bridgehampton National Bank Community Room, 2200 Montauk Hwy., Bridgehampton. For more information or to register please call East End Hospice at 631-288-8400. There is no charge.

November 15, 2009

In the northern hemisphere it is fall. The leaves have turned from green to brown, and perhaps already fallen off the branches. We are coming to the end of the Church's year as well. During November we continue to pray for all who have died. Our readings often focus on the end of time, when God will all in all.

Reading

Mark 13:28,30-32

"From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

"But about that day or hour no one knows neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.
The Gospel of the Lord

Reflection: Why does Jesus say that his words will never pass away?

Prayer:

*Eternal God,
For you time has no meaning.
You existed before all that is,
And you will live forever.
Keep us faithful to you,
So that someday, we too, will be a part of your Eternal kingdom.
We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen.*

November 17, 2009

Today we hear about a rich tax collector named Zacchaeus (Zuh-KEE-us). For the Jewish people, tax collecting was a sin. The Pharisees (FAIR-uh-seez) are surprised that Jesus talks to Zacchaeus and even goes to his house.

Reading

Luke 19:1-10

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, "He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner." Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Look, half my possessions, Lord I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay them back four times as much." Then Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek out and save the lost."
The Gospel of the Lord.

Reflection: Is there any way that we are like Zacchaeus?

Prayer:

*Loving God,
you see the good in every person.
Help us to remember that we are all your children.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN.*
