32nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

Nov. 8, 2009

1 kgs 17:10-16; Ps 146: 7,8-9, 9-10; Heb 9:24-28; Mk 12:38-44

Becoming saints of God may seem to be an impossible quest. But giving just one cup of water to another person brings an irrevocable reward. Elijah the prophet asked a poor widow for a cup of water and a bit of bread. It was the middle of a drought, and she and her son were on the verge of starvation, but she obeyed. The prophet calmed her fears; God cannot be outdone in generosity. God secures justice for the oppressed, provides food for the hungry, heals the afflicted, and uplifts those bowed down by adversity.

Jesus contrasted those who served for personal gain with a humble widow who assisted others in gratitude for the little she had. While the rich gave from their surplus wealth, she gave from her sustenance.

Jesus is our model of self-giving. In life he poured himself out through his service to all who were in need. In his death he offered his own blood in expiation for sin. As high priest in the heavenly sanctuary, Jesus continues to intercede on our behalf.

For reflection: Do I withhold my resources from those in need? How much am I willing to serve God today?

32ND Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 8, 2009

This Gospel today tells the story of a widow, a woman whose husband has died. She is very poor, and yet she give the little that she has to the temple treasury.

Reading

Mark 12:41-44

Jesus sat dow opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people came and put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Reflection: Is Jesus talking only about giving money? What else might he be trying to teach?

Prayer:

*Heavenly Father,
No offering is too small
To give you honor
If we give it with our whole heart.
Today, help us to do our little tasks with care
And love, so that our lives may give you
Praise.
We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen.*

Saint Martin of Tours

Today we remember Saint Martin Of Tours, who was a fourth century Bishop. Once when he was young, he saw a beggar in the cold. Martin tore his cape in half and shared it with the poor man.

Reading

Luke 17:11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going throught he region between Samaria (Suh-MAIR-ee-uh) and Galilee (GAL-ih-lee). As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, " Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."
The Gospel of the Lord.

Reflection: Why is it important to say thank you to God and to people who help us?

Prayer:

*Most Holy God, we give you thanks for all of the ways
that you bless us,
Especially for those how help us each day.
May we always remember to thank them.
Grant this through Christ the Lord. AMEN.*

A Performance of our 6th Annual Lessons & Carols

Sunday
November 29

3:00 pm

Sacred Hearts
of Jesus & Mary
Church

Presented by Adult Faith Formation

Lessons and Carols is a traditional Advent Service that began in King's College, Cambridge, England in 1918. This historic service includes Old and New Testament readings anticipating the birth of our Savior, followed by the singing of a carol appropriate for that reading. Our program will consist of nine readings by parishioners and carols led by the Adult, Spanish, and Children's Choirs and a strings ensemble.

A great way to begin Advent!
